SOURCE: Data from election reports filed with N.C. Board of Elections for 1990-1996 and with Federal Election Commission for 1991-1996. Does not include donations to local candidates or to non-federal candidates and PACs not in North Carolina.

NOTES: House Speaker Harold Brubaker appointees: Thomas Darden, J.R. Poole, Charles Shelton Jr. Senate Pres. Pro Tem appointment: Michael Mills ($128,000 of his money went for his failed bids for state Rep. in 1992 and District Attorney in 1990). All others appointed by Gov. Hunt. Includes donations from family members and in 3 cases from senior partners/bosses who often coordinate giving with Board member: J.K. Sherron Jr., head of J. K. Sherron & Associates, where Charles Grady works, Charles A. Hayes, chair of Guilford Mills where Doug Galyon is director of public affairs; John W. Harris, president of The Harris Group where Peter Pappas is vice president. Omits donations from other partners and business associates, and federal donations for 1990.
