

PLEDGE TO VOTE AGAINST

Your 2018 Ballot Will Contain Dishonest Constitutional Amendments – Learn What They REALLY Do, Make Your Voice Heard, and Protect Your Right to Vote.

This fall, you'll have a chance to vote on a slate of proposed constitutional amendments at the end of your ballot, including one meant to revive North Carolina's discriminatory photo ID requirement to vote.

Read the fine print and vote AGAINST proposed 2018 constitutional amendments that:

-  revive discriminatory voting restrictions
-  give politicians more power to pick judges for partisan gain
-  let legislators change our elections system and hurt voting access
-  help the rich and corporate interests at the expense of working families

Justice is on the Ballot – Have Your Say

In addition to federal and statewide races, judges, county sheriffs and district attorneys are all on the ballot in 2018. These offices affect justice in your community— make your voice heard! Review your full ballot at ncvoter.org.

Don't Wait – Make Your Voice Heard During Early Voting: October 17 - November 3

There are 18 days of Early Voting in 2018! Voting early can save you from lost time, long lines, and other hassles – and you can even update your registration during Early Voting! See Early Voting locations and schedules for your county at ncvoter.org.

Election Day is November 6 – What You Need to Know

On Election Day, go to your own precinct's polling place, not an Early Voting location. Polls are open 6:30 a.m. – 7:30 p.m. With a few exceptions, a photo ID is not necessary to vote. For help to find your poll or assist with problems at your poll, call 1-888-OUR-VOTE or visit ncvoter.org.
