

“Once a person has served their time, they should not be made to continue paying for their past mistakes.”

—Desmond Meade, Florida Rights Restoration Coalition

Been locked up?
Don't be locked out.

#WEVOTE

DEMOCRACY NC

Paid for by Democracy North Carolina.
Not affiliated with any political party or candidate.

You CAN vote in North Carolina if:

- You've been convicted of a felony in any state and have served your sentence, including probation or parole.
- You register to vote after your sentence is served – no special paperwork is needed. Register either 25 days before Election Day or by using Same-Day Registration during Early Voting.
- You've only been convicted of a misdemeanor. In this case, you never lose your right to vote – even if you're still in jail.

For more information on how to register to vote after serving your sentence, vote by mail from jail, and more, visit ncvoter.org or call or text

888-OUR-VOTE.

Been locked up?
Don't be locked out.

#WEVOTE

You CAN vote in North Carolina if:

- ✓ You've been convicted of a felony in any state and have served your sentence, including probation or parole.
- ✓ You register to vote after your sentence is served – no special paperwork is needed. Register either 25 days before Election Day or by using Same-Day Registration during Early Voting.
- ✓ You've only been convicted of a misdemeanor. In this case, you never lose your right to vote – even if you're still in jail.

For more information on how to register to vote after serving your sentence, vote by mail from jail, and more, visit ncvoter.org or call or text 888-OUR-VOTE.

DEMOCRACY NC

Paid for by Democracy North Carolina.
Not affiliated with any political party or candidate.