North Carolina's Photo ID Requirements to Vote

What Does the Law Mean?

You now need to show an NC driver's license or other "acceptable photo ID" (see below) to vote with a regular ballot due to a ruling by the NC Supreme Court.

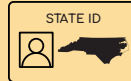

Acceptable IDs

NC Driver's License

- Must NOT be expired OR expired for 1 year or less

Non-Driver's ID From NC DMV

- Must NOT be expired OR expired for 1 year or less

U.S. Passport or Passport Card

What Else Do I Need to Know?

- A voter 65 or older may use an expired form of acceptable ID if the ID was unexpired on their 65th birthday – it's good for life!
- The address on your ID does not matter to vote – the law says ID is only used to prove who you are, not where you live. (Make sure your voter registration matches your current address!)
- Mail-in absentee voters now need to include in their ballot return envelope either (1) a photocopy of their photo ID or (2) an ID exception form saying they are unable to attach a copy of photo ID. Visit gotidnc.org for real time updates.

NOTE – If you forgot to bring your acceptable photo ID, you can vote a provisional ballot, and you must take an acceptable ID to your county elections board by the day before election results are certified (county canvass day, the second Thursday after the Primary and General Election Days in 2024). If you don't have an acceptable ID, whether voting in person or by mail, you can request and fill out an ID Exception Form (also known as a reasonable impediment form) and vote a provisional ballot.
