Greater Triangle

WHAT'S ON THE BALLOT IN YOUR REGION

No matter your issue or what you care about, you will find it on your ballot in 2025

ELECTION DAY

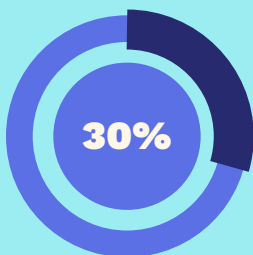

September 9 (Partisan Primary), October 7, or November 4, 2025, depending on where you live. The September and/or October primaries narrow the number of candidates who will appear on November's ballot.

Counties across the Greater Triangle have Municipal Elections in 2025 for Mayor, City/Town Council, Board of Commissioners, and more! Check your city or town's election details at ncvoter.org/votelocal

PRO-TIP: The more you know about the races on your ballot — the less you leave blank.

Take your time, mark your choices in EVERY race in your area, and encourage others to do the same. Learn how to look up your sample ballot at ncvoter.org/ballot

FACT: More than 30% of voters fail to complete their ballot.* Don't be one of them.

⚡ Mayor

⚡ City/Town Council

Johnston, Wake

⚡ Town Board of Commissioners

Harnett, Johnston, Wake

⚡ Sanitary District Commissioners

BUT... WHAT DO ALL OF THESE POSITIONS DO?

Mayor & City/Town Council

Oversee the general administration of day-to-day city and town operations, including police & fire departments, arts & parks, local taxes, economic development, water & sewer management, and zoning.

Town Commissioners

The town Board of Commissioners may hold purse strings for your community, determining everything from local funding for your elections to setting your property taxes and approving a town budget. They set policies through ordinances and organize the town government.

Local Sanitation

Commissioners, boards, and trustees work to address sanitary and sewer concerns and make sure utilities run smoothly.
